

Scary Halloween Story

(based on a true story)

I went trick-or-treating with my best friends, Tina, Vivi and Nikka. Our pillowcases were full of candies and it was getting late but we wanted to collect some more candies. It was dark and foggy and it started to rain. We saw an abandoned house on a hill and decided to knock at the door. The doors were open so we came in. There was nobody downstairs, so we went upstairs. We sat on an old dusty sofa and started eating candies, when we heard a noise from the ground floor....

I ran down the stairs and saw a ghost! I screamed and hid under a dirty old bed. My friends heard the noise and ran through the cobwebs. I was downstairs and my friends upstairs. I heard some footsteps... Oh, what a relief! They were my friends' footsteps! I told them about the ghost so we quickly decided to run away. We ran to the doors when we saw a light. We came closer and closer.... To our horror, we saw a vampire and a werewolf! We started running in the opposite direction and escaped through the back door. We ran back home. The vampire and werewolf were following us. I screamed and realised that it was just a spooky dream.
